Awana Builds Lasting Faith Foundations for Children Around the World

Excellence in Giving, a faith-based, non-profit research organization, recently conducted a study to measure the impact the ministry of Awana had for those who participated in Awana Clubs across five diverse countries in Africa and Asia. While the ministry of Awana looks different from country to country, the impact of child discipleship is universal.

The study showed that God is using Awana to further His kingdom around the world in the lives of children today. In Zimbabwe, in part thanks to the Africa Child and School Initiative™, we have seen the average amount of kids participating in club grow 25% across the Awana programs! In Nepal, despite the fact that the total Christian population is less than 2%, 84% of children in Awana Clubs pray almost every day or more. In India, 95% of kids who attend Awana understand the authority of Scripture and apply it in their everyday lives.

LASTING FAITH

Kids in Awana Clubs know who God is and believe in the authority of Scripture.

know Jesus died so they can be forgiven.

believe God keeps His promises.

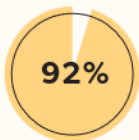

understand why God created people.

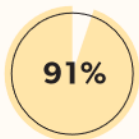

recognize God gave them special talents.

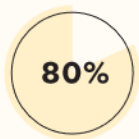

believe God is perfect.

trust Jesus as their Savior.

of kids have invited their friends at least once in the past year to their Awana program.

have shared Scripture at least once after more than a year in their Awana program.

More Time in Club = Clear Change in Habits

Awana helps kids form an unshakable, well-rounded faith, impacting various areas in their lives.
